

July 10, 2009

Funding Through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act Will Go Toward Farmington Transit

Washington, DC – Today, Rep. Ben Ray Luján applauded the United States Department of Transportation's announcement that Farmington will receive $790,312 through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act for investments in city transit.

"The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act is making important investments in our communities," said Rep. Luján. "Today's announcement that Farmington will receive $790,312 for its transit system shows that these investments are making a positive impact on communities and improving our transportation systems."

According to the United States Department of Transportation, the City of Farmington will receive $790,312 to purchase four 32-foot trolleys, two vans, and two small buses to replace others that have exceeded their useful lives.

